THE MARCH RACES SHAPING UP.

A Special $1,000 Purse To Be Given Star Drivers Best Two In Three.

DEPARTURE IN HANDICAP SYSTEM

The comment created in automobile circles by the recent announcement of a change in the Daytona race conditions, to the effect that a novel system of handicapping would be introduced, bids fair to be further augmented by subsequent additions to the original plan. It is proposed to adopt a standard of cylinder displacement, and to handicap the entire proportionately to their relation to the standard.

Furthermore, it is proposed to hold a test, the entrants of which will be grouped in five classes, based on valuation. The first class includes cars from $5000 and under; the second, from $1,0000 to $1,750; the third, from $1,751 to $2,450; the fourth, from $2,451 to $3,750 and the fifth, from $3,751 up. However, these classifications are but tentative, as an effort will be made to reduce the number of divisions to four, and still embody the principle involved.

It is also planned to allow and to encourage the entrance of a car in both its races governed by cylinder displacement conditions and the one governed by classified valuations. By entering a car in the "cylinder displacement race," and then starting the same machine in the other event, as basis for comparison is afforded. The question of economy of fuel and lubricants will thus be given a thorough threshing out, and the real merits of cars of the same price will be disclosed.

By then entering these same machines in the "classified valuation race" an equitable basis of comparison can be obtained.

There has been arranged a match race between George Robertson, the Vanderbilt Cup winner, Lewis Strang, winner of the Briarcliff and other events. It is planned to hold this race during the Daytona Beach carnival from March 23 to 26. A special cash prize of $1,000 has been offered, and it is proposed to hold three races, best two out of three runs to count. Arrangements are now under way and the exact date and division will be announced after a satisfactory agreement has been determined upon by Robertson and Strang.

CONFERRED DEGREE.

* * *

At the regular communication of Halifax Lodge, No. 81, F. & A. M., Thursday night, E. L. Shear, proprietor of the Daytona Steam Laundry, was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason in the presence of a goodly assemblage of the brethren, many of whom were visitors from all parts of the country.

After the conferring of the degree a light repast of coffee and cakes was served in the banquet room.

CAPT. BOYTON TIED UP AT OUR DOCK.

The Famous Old Swimmer Is Spending a Few Days In The City In Passing.

BUILT LUNA PARK, CONEY ISLAND

Capt. Paul Boyton the world's famous swimmer, in his yacht, the "Water Gypsy," arrived at Cille's dock Saturday night.

With the captain of the yacht are his wife and family, no one else, he and his sons being the crew. The boat left their home, Bridgeport, Conn., on October 18th, and the cruise so far has covered something over 2,000 miles. The trip from New York to Jacksonville was made partly on the outside, partly on the inside, and every river or stream was explored for hunting and fishing. The "Water Gypsy" draws over five feet of water, and consequently encountered a great deal of trouble in coming down the Halifax. Captain Boyton thinks that the waters here will deepen when the canal is cut through into the St. Johns. So far in Florida the towns visited have been Sanford, St. Augustine and numerous smaller towns. The party will likely leave here Tuesday morning.

Captain Boyton was probably the greatest swimmer in the country in his day. It is several years since he did any work. Many books have been written about the Captain, and the swimming and diving feats he has accomplished. Captain Boyton has accomplished a number of startling swimming feats, among these swimming the English channel, the Strait of Gibraltar, and nearly all the large rivers of the world. During his lifetime he has swam probably 25,000 miles.

Captain Boyton was the original builder and owner of Luna Park, Coney Island, N. Y., but sold out his interests there several years ago to Frederick Thompson the husband of Mabie Talliferro, of "Polly of the Circus," fame, and one of the greatest theatrical producers of the day.

Captain Boyton is also the inventor of many of the amusement park riding devices, chute-the-chute, etc. The Captain is 62 years of age, but appears much younger. Captain Boyton has appeared before many of the crowned heads of Europe, among them being the late Queen Victoria of England.

OFF FOR A BIG HUNT.

* * *

George H. Munroe and Mr. Luther, of the firm of Carson, Peirce, Scott & Co., Chicago, leave this afternoon for a big game preserve owned by Mr. Pierre near Orlando. The hunting preserve borders Lake Apopka, which is well stocked with fresh water fish and Mr. Pierce with Messrs Munroe and Luther as guests, will have a few days' sport both gunning and angling. They have gone prepared for the sport and will no doubt give a good account of themselves.

A NEW HOME FOR IVY LANE

* * *

John H. Miller of Pittsburg, has bought of F. H. Spring a lot on Ivy Lane with a 75 foot frontage. The lot lies between the residences of Mr. Spring and J. D. C. Morris. Mr. Miller will let the contract this spring for a handsome modern residence to be completed in time for occupancy next fall when he and his family will take possession.

There are several parties who are expecting to build this summer and it is highly probable that be another season the pick of the available sites on Ivy Lane will be occupied as a number of prospective buyers have their eyes fixed on this "lane."

A Naturalist's Excursion in Florida.

[A friend of The Daily News kindly in the early morning hours secured, when in town Mr. Vandiver to the Editor of The News, a copy of the Philadelphia Ledger, published at Philadelphia, Pa., which has proven very interesting and instructive and a reproduction is herewith submitted. Mr. Vandiver's address was 1608 Girard Ave., Philadelphia, Pa., and he gives of observing in travel.]

The tale now began to leave us; and you must know, that in this part of our country, the tide goes down not a pace, but in a hurry, so much so, indeed, that notwithstanding our rowing before it we were, on several occasions, obliged to leap into the briny stream, and push the boat over oyster banks sharp as razors.

After shooting some more birds, and pulling our boat through many a difficult channel, we reached the schooner again; and as the birds, generally speaking, appeared wild and few (you must be aware that I call birds few, when I shoot less than a hundred per day) my generous host proposed to turn home again. Preparations were accordingly made, and we left the schooner, with tide and wind in our teeth, and with the prospect of a severe cold night. The hands pulled well, and our bark was as light as our hearts. All went on merrily until dark night came on. The wind freshening, the cold augmenting, the provisions diminishing, the waters lowering, all—all depreciating except our enterprising dispositions. We found ourselves fast in the mud about 200 yards from a marshy shore, without the least hope of being able to raise a fire, for no trees, except palm trees, were near, and the grand diable himself could not burn one of them. Our minds were soon made up to do, what? Why, to roll ourselves in our cloaks, and to live down the best we could at the bottom of our light and beautiful bark.

What a night, to sleep was impossible, the cold increased with the breeze, and every moment seemed an hour, from the time we stretched ourselves down, until the light of the morn, but the most rueful, that to ever mortal was, and the gentlemanly cold as ever wind knew in this latitude. All hands half dead, and the master as nearly exhausted as the hands stiffened with cold, light clothed, and but slight hopes of our reaching any shore; our only resort was to lean into the mire, water deep, and so push for bulk to a point, some four or five hundred yards, where a few months later I intend to have grown to ease our love on the occasion. Push boys, push, push for your lives says the gunning Nelson, as the poor Midshipman "All hands Push." Aye and well might we push, the mire was up to our breast, our limbs become stiffened, and almost useless, at every step we took. Our progress was slowly performed as if we had been clogged with heavy chains. At last in two and one-half hours in reach the point where the four trees, of which I have spoken were; but we did get there.

We landed, and well it was that we did, for on reaching the margin of the marsh two of the negroes fell down in the mud in utter exhaustion, completely rendered an alligator's meal; and had we, the white men, not been there, they certainly would have died. We had them carried into the little house, to which I believe all of us owe our lives. I struck a fire in a crack and on a few minutes I saw, with indescribable pleasure, the bright, warming blaze of a log pile in the center of our slave-ing party.

We wrapped the negroes in blankets, boiled some water and soon had warm tea, made them swallow it, and with care revived them into animation. May God preserve you from ever being in the condition of our party at this juncture! It scarcely a man able to stand and the cold wind blowing freely. Our men, however, gradually revived, the trees, one after another, fell under the hatchet and increased our fire, and in two hours I had the pleasure of seeing cheerful faces again. We all got warm, and ultimately got, although the prospect was far from being pleasant, to bed to go home or to any habitation, contained in a large sail made with rushes and logs, and many to provisions situated three miles from the boat of our host.

A BIG SHOW COMING ON FEB. 19TH.

Save Up Your Nickels, Boys, If You Want To Ride The Elephant.

A CLEAN PERFORMANCE PROMISED

H. J. Williams, advance agent of King & Tucker's great railroad shows was in the city this morning making a date and arrangements for the show, which is billed for this city, Friday, February 19. Mr. Williams says that while it is not the largest show on the road, it is one of the best and cleanest.

The Miami Morning News-Record speaks very highly of the show saying it is a good one, that it is well conducted and the attendants polite and courteous the entertainment clean and up to date and well worthy of patronage.

The tent was crowded to its utmost capacity at the Miami performance and the News-Record says that on the whole the show was equal to any that had visited that city in the past and no one who attended it failed to be pleased and entertained.

One of the features of the show is trained llama, and the trained ponies are said to be exceptionally good. They also give some very thrilling acrobatic acts.

The show has just returned from Sarasota, where there are 20,000 blacks to 10,000 whites, and report very interesting experiences. The Sarasotans had never seen an elephant and the advance advance was boundless.

Mrs. N. N. Bailey, who received an injury to her leg about a week ago from a fall caused by tripping over a rug, is still unable to use the limb, although it is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Boyd, of Volusia avenue, returned Monday from a ten days trip including Como, St. Petersburg, Passa-Grille, Tampa and other places. While at Tampa they visited the Fair, which they say is very good, although all exhibits were not yet complete.

CONSTITUTION ON RETURN.

* * *

A note to the Daily News says that the Constitution is on her way from the South, having left the Palm Beach pier on schedule time. The visitors were enthusiastic in their praise of the city on Lake Worth and of the delightful trip by water, as every convenience is provided. Sidney Maddock, owner of the Hotel Palm Beach, took out a number of friends in his beautiful cut boat Sea. Among the Daytona people in the party were Mr. Blake and the Misses Goss of Minneapolis. The charming wife of manager W. G. Buell is at the Palm Beach Hotel. He has a large hotel at Stockbridge, Conn.

The Tent Meeting.

At the tent last night Elder Parnell gave an interesting exposition of the prophecy of the seventh chapter of Daniel. The elder showed that the names, which Daniel saw, represented peoples or nations, as in Rev. 17:15. The four beasts which came up among them might have risen this side of 483 A. D. must have rooted up three of the first horns next to a governing, blasphemous power, and must rule a time, times and the dividing of time.

This same power is brought to view in Rev. 13, where it is represented as ruling 42 months. In Rev. 12, this same period of time is brought to view in the 14th verse and in the sixth verse it is shown to be 1260 days. Three and one-half times 360 or 42 times 30 equal the same. By Rev. 11:2 we learn to look for such prophetic day for a year which means 1260 years.

The subject for tonight is "The New Testament Sabbath."

Is Slowly Recovering.

James Barrett, the young man who fell from his bicycle Christmas day and broke his leg, left his bed for the first time last Friday. Dr. Hoke, who is attending Mr. Barrett, says he will be able to get about on crutches within a week or ten days and is satisfied that he will recover the full use of the limb in due time. The fracture was a bad one and the case complicated by an illness of Mr. Barrett, shortly after he was laid up by the accident.

AUTHORITIES WILL HAVE TO CALL HALT

A NEAR ACCIDENT ON SATURDAY.

* * *

Some day, and at no very remote day at that, there will be a real accident in Daytona. Some one will be hurt, maybe killed, and then people will wake up to the fact that careless speeding of automobiles is a dangerous thing. Some tourists that come here seem to get the notion into their heads that they own all the land their machines cover, so, accordingly, they cover as much land as possible as speedily as possible.

On Saturday afternoon W. W. Hughes of Urbana, Ohio, who is staying at the New York cottages, reported to Mayor Seaman an occurrence which came near resulting in bodily harm for him.

Mr. Hughes was riding his wheel on Magnolia avenue near Palmetto, and was on the extreme right hand side of the street. A large, dark colored machine was coming from the opposite direction and running on the wrong side of the street. When probably a hundred feet from Mr. Hughes the auto driver recognized him by three short sounds of the horn, but Mr. Hughes, knowing that he was on the right side, kept on, paying no attention to the note, which came right on at him. Had not Mr. Hughes literally thrown himself from his wheel and into a tree in the package he undoubtedly would have been badly injured at the best. As it was his wheel was not in any better shape as the result of the encounter.

The party in the machine, the number of which Mr. Hughes was unable to get, laughed at him in his plight.

There were several eye-witnesses to the affair.

Announcement.

I hereby announce my candidacy for election to the office of City Tax Collector and respectfully ask the support of the voters at the election of Feb. 10.

MRS. JOHN ALEXANDER STIRLING.

Mrs. John Alexander Stirling, the beautiful American woman who figured in the sensational divorce suit in Edinburgh, Scotland, is well known in Washington. Before her marriage to Stirling she was Miss Clara Elizabeth Taylor and was a popular figure in smart circles at the capital. The divorce trial involved some of the highest names in England, including Viscount Northland, whom Stirling named co-respondent in the case. Mrs. Stirling charged the beautiful Mrs. Mabel Louise Atherton as being responsible for her marital troubles.

A Naturalist's Excursion in Florida.

[A friend of the Daily News hands in the entertaining letter annexed, which is from Mr. Audubon to the Editor of The American Monthly Journal of Geology, etc., published at Philadelphia seventy-four years ago. Written by so distinguished a person when conditions were so different from the present, it can but prove of absorbing interest.]

The tide now began to leave us; and you must know, that in this part of our country, the tide goes down not a pace, but in a hurry, so much so, indeed, that notwithstanding our rowing before it we were, on several occasions, obliged to leap into the briny stream, and push the boat over oyster banks sharp as razors.

All hands half dead, and the master as nearly exhausted as the hands stiffened with cold, light clothed, and but slight hope of our nearing any shore; our only resort was to leap into the mire, waist deep, and to push the bark to a point, some five or six hundred yards, where a few scrubby trees seemed to have grown to save our lives on this occasion. Push boys, push, push for your lives, cry the generous Bulow, and the poor Audubon. "All hands Push" Aye and well might we push, the mire was up to our breast, our limbs becoming stiffened, and almost useless, at every step we took. Our progress was as slowly performed as if we had been clogged with heavy chains. It took us two and one-half hours to reach the point where the few trees, of which I have spoken were; but we did get there.

At the tent last night Elder Parmele gave an interesting exposition of the prophecy of the seventh chapter of Daniel. The elder showed that the waters, which Daniel saw, represented people or nations, as in Rev. 17:15. The wind as in Jer. 49: 36, 37 represented war among the people. And the beasts the angel said as recorded in Dan. 7 25 symbolized "four Kingdoms."

"These Kingdoms," said the speaker, we have already studied in the vision of the second chapter. There it was shown that they represent Babylon, Medo-Persia, Grecia and Rome.

"The ten horns, according to the angel, symbolized the division of the Roman Empire into ten parts. The little horn which came up among them must have risen this side of 483 A. D., must have rooted up three of the first horns, must be a persecuting, blasphemous power, and must rule "a time, times and the dividing of time.

This same power is brought to view in Rev. 13, where it is represented as ruling 42 months. In Rev. 12, this same period of time is brought to view in the 14th verse and in the sixth verse it is shown to be 1260 days. Three and one-half times 360 or 42 times 30 figure the same. By Eze. 4:6 we learn to reckon each prophetic day for a year which makes 1260 years."

The subject for tonight is "The New Testament Sabbath."

Is Slowly Recovering.

James Barrett, the young man who fell from his bicycle Christmas day and broke his leg, left his bed for the first time last Friday. Dr. Howe, who is attending Mr. Barrett, says he will be able to get about on crutches within a week or ten days and is satisfied that he will recover the full use of the limb in due time. The fracture was a bad one and the case complicated by an illness of Mr. Barrett, shortly after he was laid up by the accident.

A BIG SHOW COMING ON FEB. 19TH.

Save Up Your Nickels, Boys, If You Want To Ride The Elephant.

A CLEAN PERFORMANCE PROMISED

H. J. Williams advance agent of King & Tucker's great railroad shows was in the city this morning making a date and arrangements for the show, which is billed for this city, Friday, February 19 Mr. Williams says that while it is not the largest show on the road, it is one of the best and cleanest.

The Miami Morning News-Record speaks very highly of the show saying it is a good one, that it is well conducted and the attendants polite and courteous the entertainment clean and up to date, and well worthy of patronage.

The tent was crowded to its utmost capacity at the Miami performance and the News-Record says that on the whole the show was equal to any that had visited that city in the past and no one who attended it failed to be pleased and entertained

One of the features of the show is a trained llama, and the trained ponies are said to be exceptionally good. They also give some very thrilling acrobatic acts.

The show has just returned from Nassau, where there are 20,000 blacks to 10,000 whites, and report very interesting experiences. The Bahamans had never seen an elephant and their astonishment was boundless.

Mrs N. N. Bailey, who received an injury to her leg about a week ago from a fall caused by tripping over a rug, is still unable to use the limb, although it is improving slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Boyd, of Volusia avenue, returned Monday from a ten days trip including Como, St. Petersburg, Pass-a-Grille, Tampa and other places. While at Tampa they visited the Fair, which they say is very good, although all exhibits were not yet complete.

AUTHORITIES WILL HAVE TO CALL HALT

Reckless Speeding Of Automobiles Within The City Limits Must Be Checked.

A NEAR ACCIDENT ON SATURDAY.

Some day, and at no very remote day at that, there will be a real accident in Daytona. Some one will be hurt, maybe killed, and then people will wake up to the fact that careless speeding of automobiles is a dangerous thing. Some tourists that come here seem to get the notion into their heads that they own all the land their machines cover, so, accordingly, they cover as much land as possible as speedily as possible.

On Sathrday afternoon W. W. Hughes of Urbana, Ohio, who is staying at the New York cottage, reported to Mayor Seaman an occurrence which came near resulting in bodily harm for him.

Mr. Hughes was riding his wheel on Magnolia avenue near Palmetto, and was on the extreme right hand side of the street. A large, dark-colored machine was coming from the opposite direction and running on the wrong side of the street. When probably a hundred feet from Mr Hughes the auto driver recognized him by three short sounds of the horn, but Mr. Hughes, knowing that he was on the right side, kept on, paying no attention to the auto, which came right on at him. Had not Mr. Hughes literally thrown himself from his wheel and into a tree in the parkage he undoubtedly would have been badly injured at the best. As it, was his wheel was not in any better shape as the result of the encounter.

The party in the machine, the number of which Mr. Hughes was unable to get, laughed at him in his plight.

There were several eye-witnesses to the affair.

Announcement.

I hereby announce my candidacy for election to the office of City Tax Collector and respectfully ask the support of the voters at the election of Feb. 10.

MRS. JOHN ALEXANDER STIRLING.

Mrs. John Alexander Stirling, the beautiful American woman who figured in the sensational divorce suit in Edinburgh, Scotland, is well known in Washington. Before her marriage to Stirling she was Miss Clara Elizabeth Taylor and was a popular figure in smart circles at the capital. The divorce trial involved some of the highest names in England, including Viscount Northland, whom Stirling named as corespondent in the case. Mrs. Stirling charged the beautiful Mrs. Mabel Louise Atherton as being responsible for her marital troubles.

SEABREEZE, Feb. 8.—The High School students had a pleasant evening with Professor and Mrs. H. Wakefield Fryder. The dream to be staged by the school was selected, entitled "The Sweet-Girl Graduate's Dream," and the character cast made. After which the company adjourned to the dining room to a candy pull, which was a delightful finale to an evening pleasantly and profitably spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Christie and Son, of Detroit, Mich., are among the recent arrivals and are pleasantly located on Ocean boulevard.

H. G. Wilson & Co. has sold two lots on Palmetto avenue, Daytona Beach, to Mrs. Loretta Ware, belonging to D. D. Rogers and Mrs. Mabel Lehman. Mrs. Ward has spent a number of winters at Daytona Beach and this winter has her handsome touring car with her and is enjoying our excellent driveways. She is planning for the immediate improvement of her property and expects to erect a residence on the same.

Yesterday's arrivals at the Princess Issena were M. A. Leonard and wife, Mobile; N. Y. F. Mc. Guild and wife, Lake Placid, N. Y.; Mr. Chas. A. Ufford, Boston; Miss Julia T. Sherman, Buffalo, N. Y.; Alfred Bliss, Utica, N. Y.; R. W. Bethel, St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. Fannie Brigham closed a deal Saturday for a 50 foot front lot on Valley street, Seabreeze to W. W. Abercrombie, Daytona.

Mrs. George W. Bliss, of Chickopee Falls, Mass., arrived Friday and will spend two or three months with L. T. Burdick and wife.

Wm. F. Taylor and wife, prominent people of Memphis, Tenn., arrived Friday night and will spend some time here as guests of Miss Russell.

G. B. Poor and wife, of Baldwin Co., arrived the latter part of the week and will spend some time with his brother, C. S. Poor, and wife, on Fleetwood ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Farrell and Mr. E. B. Case left yesterday in Mr. Farrell's motor car for a trip to Orlando via De Land.

DAYTONA BEACH, Feb. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell and daughter, Mrs. Stanley Roberts, had a pleasant trip to New Smyrna yesterday.

Mrs. Frances, who has been the guest of Mrs. Powell for some time, returned yesterday from several days spent at Palm Beach.

Miss Frances Sexter, of Dalton, Ga., arrived Thursday and has taken rooms at the home of C. E. Sparber.

Mrs. Gerkin and Miss Stoneberd, of Greenfield, Ohio, cousins of Mrs. Powell, are expected to arrive this week.

John F. Crozier, W. L. Crozier and wife, Gainesville, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Colvin, Bridgeport, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sullivan, Grand Rapids, Mich., are recent arrivals at the White House.

C. C. Jacque and wife have taken the first floor apartments at the Hilton house on Ocean avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Miller, of New York, have taken rooms at the Wilson home on Seabreeze avenue.

Evangelist Harris was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams, Pinewood avenue, Friday afternoon.

J. E. Garfield is having his lot in front of and to the north of the Abercrombie subdivision on Earl street, underbrushed and grubbed.

John Sears and son, who spent several days at The Pinehurst the first part of the week, left Friday for New Smyrna and other points South.

Miss Packart was over from De Land the latter part of last week and spent some time looking over her father's new residence on Seabreeze beach.

Miss Haight has accepted a position with Mrs. J. E. Abercrombie in her mantrimming business on Earl street.

One of our expert fishermen hereabouts caught a pair of eight pound fish on the bridge, and being quite elated over it went to a nearby grocery store to have it weighed. He set his $4.00 fishing pole and tackles on the outside, weighed the fish and then went in and purchased a membership for equipment. Returning the next day his pole and tackles were gone. And now he is lamenting his expensive catch.

How to Settle Bills.

There is a young Harlem matron who has acquired the habit of paying the first of each month by the prospect of telling her husband see the size of the bills that come in for food, drink and for her own personal adornment. Her four-pound daughter suffered for a recent suggestion the other day as to the simplest means of settling bills.

The child, sitting her mother's dressing with a clouded brow a bit of paper, inquired:

"Is it a bill, mamma?"

"Why, it's a nasty big bill, dearie."

The child's bright eyes cleared as if the view searching her innermost soul for some word of comfort. Suddenly she fastened a glad look at her mother, and her voice had all the brilliancy of one voicing an inspiration:

"Mamma, jes' tear it up. Then you don't have to pay it."—New York Press

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Feb. 8.—The High School students had a pleasant evening with Professor and Mrs. H. Wakefield Friday. The drama to be staged by the school was selected, entitled "The Sweet Girl Graduate's Dream" and the character cast made. After which the company adjourned to the dining room to a candy pull, which was a delightful finale to an evening pleasantly and profitably spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Christa and Son, of Detroit, Mich., are among the recent arrivals and are pleasantly located on Ocean boulevard.

H. G. Wilson & Co. has sold two lots on Palmetto avenue, Daytona Beach, to Mrs. Loretta Warn belonging to D D. Rogers and Mrs. Mabel Lehman. Mrs. Ward has spent a number of winters at Daytona Beach and this winter has her handsome touring car with her and is enjoying our excellent driveways. She is planning for the immediate improvement of her property and expects to erect a residence on the same.

Yesterday's arrivals at the Princess Issena were M. A. Leonard and wife, Malone, N Y.; F. B. Guild and wife, Lake Placid, N. Y.; Mrs. Chas. A. Ufford, Boston; Miss Julia T Sherman Buffalo, N. Y; Alfred Bliss, Utica, N. Y.; R. W. Bethel, St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs Fannie Brigham closed a deal Saturday for a 50 front foot lot on Valley street, belonging to W. W. Abercrombie, Daytona.

Mrs. George W Bray, of Chickopee Falls, Mass, arrived Friday and will spend two or three months with L. Z Burdick and wife.

Wm. F. Taylor and wife, prominent people of Memphis, Tenn., arrived Friday night and will spend some time here as guests of Miss Russell.

G. B Poor and wife, of Bolder Col, arrived the latter part of the week and will spend some time with his brother, C. S. Poor, and wife, on Pinewood ave.

Mr and Mrs. Geo. L. Farrell and Mr E. B. Case left yesterday in Mr. Farrell's motor car for a trip to Orlando via De Land.

Precocious Punctilio.

"So you don't believe in Santa Claus?"

"I didn't exactly say that," answered the little Boston girl. "But I don't approve of him. I understand that he calls after 6 o'clock and doesn't wear evening clothes."—Washington Star.

Not So Sharp.

"That is a sharp young man your daughter is going with these days."

"Not so sharp as he thinks he is. He thinks he is going to stick me for a home and puncture my bank account, but he isn't."—Houston Post.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Feb, 8—Mr. and Mrs Hubbell and daughter, Mrs. Stanley Roberts, had a pleasant trip to New Smyrna yesterday.

Mrs. Freeman, who has been the guest of Mrs. Powell for some time, returned yesterday from several days spent at Palm Beach.

Miss Frances Senter, of Dalton, Ga. arrived Thursday and has taken rooms at the home of C. E. Sparber.

Mrs. Gerkin and Miss Shepherd, of Greenfield, Ohio, cousins of Mrs. Powell, are expected to arrive this week.

John P. Crigler, W. L. Crigler and wife, Shelbyville, Tenn; Mr. and Mrs. Curtis, Bridgeport, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Balfour, Grand Rapids, Mich., are recent arrivals at the White House.

C. C. Jacque and wife have taken the first floor apartments at the Hilton house on Ocean avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Miller, of New York, have taken rooms at the Wilcox home on Seabreeze avenue.

Evangelist Harris was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Williams, Pinewood avenue, Friday afternoon

J. E. Garfield is having his lot recently purchased in the Brush-Shoemaker subdivision on Earl street, underbrushed and grubbed.

John Sears and son who spent several days at The Pinehurst the fore part of the week, left Friday for New Smyrna and other points South.

Miss Stewart was over from DeLand the latter part of last week, and spent some time looking over her father's new residence on Seabreeze beach.

Miss Haight has accepted a position with Mrs. J. B Abercrombie in her mantuamaking business, on Valley street.

One of our expert fishermen tourists caught a six or eight pound fish on the bridge, and being quite elated over it went to a nearby grocery store to have it weighed. He set his $4.00 fishing pole and tackles on the outside, weighed the fish and proceeded home without remembering his equipment. Returning the next day his pole and tackles were gone. And now he is lamenting his expensive catch.

How to Settle Bills.

There is a young Harlem matron whose mental equilibrium is upset the first of each month by the prospect of letting her husband see the size of the bills that come in for food, drink and for her own personal adornment. Her four-year-old daughter offered her a valuable suggestion the other day as to the simplest means of settling bills.

The small child, seeing her mother examining with a clouded brow a bit of paper, inquired:

"Is it a nice letter, mamma?"

"No; it's a nasty big bill, dearie."

The child's bright eyes closed as if she were searching her innermost soul for some word of comfort. Suddenly she flashed a glad look at her mother, and her voice had all the brilliancy of one voicing an inspiration:

"Mamma, jes' tear it up. Then you don't have to pay it."—New York Press

The Modern Seven Wonders
Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a pressing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphalt-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of water washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with dusk and dawn and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican preyb a fat mullet, and that fish hawk fly-a-gling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid an' liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-reaching branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you are distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps continuously more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The canon of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our houses differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Best and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margin of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park.

And so for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where are the between the northern and western seas are as many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona shows down the gauntlet to the world.

Spatterdock, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eye callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goo bee" there is a hanny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gaze into the meat, cocking curious, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard rows of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the precious are ablaze, another is hidden in a jungle of ball cane.

The bush flit to and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and harmonize today to the picture.

As for fruits, those citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.
Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scenes. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for rain for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Rev. Wm. Lardner last week returned to her home on Palmetto avenue from the Daytona Hospital.

Mrs. M. E. Hardenberg who has been at Lake Helen for about two weeks returned to Daytona Saturday and is again with Mrs. E. A. Tucker on South Ridgewood avenue.

J. B. Moore, E. T. Conrad, W. S. Rodgers and Burt Pellett made a fishing and hunting trip to the lagoon Saturday aboard the Grace Ferris, expecting to return today.

"Desirable building lots at Silver Beach, near Automobile Club House for sale at attractive prices. Apply to T. E. Fitzgerald. tf

Geo. F. Smith has had the grounds in the rear of the postoffice cleaned up and put in good shape which might be followed by others in the neighborhood to great advantage.

A cruising party is in contemplation for points in the Florida keys, about the 15th or 20th, that will include the Dubchess, the Joan of Arc, T. Conrad's new boat, and possibly several others.

By invitation of the management the children of the kindergarten and the Child Actor's League attended the matinee at the Ocean Picture Show Saturday, and it was evident they were greatly entertained. Manager Hobbs put on for their benefit the "Baby Show" and other suitable pictures.

FOR RENT—Large house, 11 rooms, situated at Silver Beach, near automobile club house; bath, hot and cold, hard and soft water, furnished. Garage and servant's quarters. Rental, $250 for season. Inquire of T. E. Fitzgerald, or any agent. tf

His Saturday Night.
The pretty, bored friend, who stood sentinel while being how it happened that her husband came home so late at a Saturday night.

"When he goes to get shaved for Sunday," she said, "he waits so long for the fine that gets there before him that he goes to sleep in the chair while he is being shaved. Then the barber, who is a friend of his, lets him sleep an hour as long as he likes after he has finished with him. But I don't see how he can fall asleep with a dangerous razor scraping all over his face. I couldn't. Could you?"

"It isn't the most plausible excuse I ever heard," said one to whom the question was put, "but it ought to pass on account of its originality."—New York Press.

Weil and wife of Hot Springs, Ark., who have come to Daytona for a few weeks stay after spending their honeymoon in Cuba.

William Hoke of Grand Rapids, Mich. who together with his youngest son, William, is spending several weeks at Schmidt's Hotel, is an old schoolmate of the late D. A. Blodgett of Ridgewood avenue, this city. Mr. Hoke is 82 years of age but still as active as a boy. He is the father of fifteen children, the youngest of which, William, is with him in Daytona.

The Prince George.
The new arrivals at The Prince George on Saturday and Sunday were the following: Mrs. Margaret Stephens, Asbury Park, N. J.; W. H. Gaines and wife, and Miss Virginia Graves, Birmingham; Mrs. J. Doe, Davenport, Ia.; Miss Mable Moore, Honesdale, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Symond, Sioux City, Ia.; Mrs. John Miller, N. Y.

The guests of The Prince George enjoyed a cuchre party given at that hotel on Saturday evening. A pleasant evening was spent at cards, the prizes being won by the following: First ladies prize, Miss Ewing, of Seymour, Ind., first gents' prize, Dr. McNeil, New York, second ladies' prize, Miss M. Miller, New York, and Mrs. James E. Damon, San Francisco, and the booby prize by Miss Kate Muller and Mrs. Andrews, of New York.

The First Pantomimes.
John Rich has the credit of producing the first pantomime ever seen in England. This was performed on March 29, 1717, at the theater in Lincoln's Inn Fields. Rich had found himself unable to compete with the legitimate drama at Drury Lane, so he bethought himself of the comic pieces occasionally performed in London and combined with their words and mechanical effects the manoeuvres of the pantomime ballet. The result was "Harlequin Executed," which the advertisement of that day described as "a new ballet, after many years, between a watchmaker, a harlequin, a country dancing girl, his wife and others." There was all the business with which we were familiar from childhood, both turned into tableaux, since into pantomime has from. Of course the "learned student of the drama" protested against this innovation, but thereupon Cunnidore & Co. have established their hold on public favor until the present year of grace.

He Knew Them.
This was overheard in the lobby of an up-town hotel: A church where a bus load of traveling salesmen came from the station. Every man of them as he passed the register paused to study the names of the guests above. Patiently sat fellow who had been there many years. "Ah," said one of them to the room, "what a good thing you're still on deck, Uncle Dave. I don't think the house could run without you." "I couldn't do it, though," said Uncle Dave. "You fellows would come in here, and if there was a strange clerk you'd say, 'Where's Uncle Dave?' And the clerk would say, 'Why, didn't you hear? He died a month ago.' And then you'd say, 'Well, I'll be darned! That's too bad. Say, when 'll dinner be ready?'"

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy veranda's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variagated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

His Saturday Night.

The pretty, broad faced, blue eyed woman was telling how it happened that her husband came home so late of a Saturday night.

"When he goes to get shaved for Sunday," she said, "he waits so long for the line that gets there before him that he goes to sleep in the chair while he is being shaved. Then the barber, who is a friend of his, lets him sleep as long as he likes after he has finished with him. But I don't see how he can fall asleep with a dangerous razor scraping all over his face. I couldn't. Could you?"

"It isn't the most plausible excuse I ever heard," said one to whom the question was put, "but it ought to pass on account of its originality."—New York Press.

NEWS OF THE HOTELS

The Despland.

Among the arrivals at the Despland over Sunday were, J. C. Verties, Palatka; J. H. Murziers and wife, Detroit, and Mrs. J. F. McAnley, also of Detroit; E. R. Bradford and wife, Detroit; J. H. Brown and wife, Augusta, Ga.; Frank Elmore, and Miss J. M. Gardner, Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. W. W. Boyer and Walter Boyer of Interlake, N. Y.

The Ridgewood.

The following new guests arrived at the Ridgewood over Sunday. E. L. Stone and wife, George Hook and wife, C. A Robinson and wife, Mrs. G. W. Talson, and Mrs. J. T. Stone, all of Wheeling, W. Va.; A. M Nulty, St. Paul; Henry Jellisel, Dover, Del.; L. Jacques, New York; P. Wright and wife, Oswego, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. H. T Perkins and child and Mrs. E. D. Perkins, Bridgeport, Conn.; Edward O'Neil, Philadelphia Melvin Montgomery and wife, Silver Creek, N. Y.; Mr and Mrs C. J. Bruce, Columbia, S. C.

A troupe from the Daytona Colored Industrial School will give an entertainment at the Ridgewood on Friday evening.

Schmidt's Hotel.

The following arrived at Schmidt's Hotel on Saturday and Sunday, H. B. Clark, New York; J. B. Collins New York, E. W. Fish, Boston; George H. McGreery, St. Augustine, and Dr. S. D. Weil and wife of Hot Springs, Ark.; who have come to Daytona for a few weeks stay after spending their honeymoon in Cuba.

William Hoke of Grand Rapids, Mich. who together with his youngest son, William, is spending several weeks at Schmidt's Hotel, is an old schoolmate of the late D. A. Blodgett of Ridgewood avenue, this city. Mr. Hoke is 82 years of age, but still as active as a boy. He is the father of fifteen children, the youngest of which, William, is with him in Daytona.

The Prince George.

The new arrivals at The Prince George on Saturday and Sunday were the following: Mrs. Margaret Stephens, Asbury Park, N. J.; W. H. Graves and wife, and Miss Virginia Graves, Birmingham; Mrs. J. Dow, Davenport, Ia.; Miss Mable Moore, Hontzdate, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Symond, Sioux City, Ia.; Mrs. John Miller, N. Y.

The guests of The Prince George enjoyed a euchre party given at that hotel on Saturday evening. A pleasant evening was spent at cards, the prizes being won by the following: First ladies' prize, Miss Ewing, of Seymour, Ind.; first gents' prize, Dr. McNeil, New York; second ladies' prizes, Miss M Muller, New York, and Mrs. James E. Damon, San Francisco, and the booby prizes by Miss Kate Muller and Mrs. Andrews, of New York.

The First Pantomime.

John Rich has the credit of producing the first pantomime ever seen in England. This was performed on Dec. 26, 1717, at the theater in Lincoln's Inn Fields. Rich had found himself unable to compete with the legitimate drama at Drury Lane, so he bethought himself of the comic masques occasionally performed in London and combined with their scenic and mechanical effects the maneuvers of the pantomime ballet. The result was "Harlequin Executed," which the advertisement of that day described as "a new Italian mimic scene, between a scaramouch, a harlequin, a country farmer, his wife and others." There was all the business with which we were familiar from childhood, huts turned into palaces, shops into gardens, houses into trees. Of course the "earnest student of the drama" protested against this innovation, but Harlequin, Columbine & Co. have maintained their hold on public favor until the present year of grace.

He Knew Them.

This was overheard in the lobby of a big hotel in Cincinnati when a bus load of traveling salesmen came from the station. Every man of them as he signed the register paused to shake hands with the hotel clerk—fatherly old fellow who had been there many years. "Ah," said one of them to the clerk, "it's a good thing you're still on deck, Uncle Dave. I don't think the house could run without you." "Couldn't it, though!" said Uncle Dave. "You fellows would come in here, and if there was a strange clerk you'd say, 'Where's Uncle Dave?' And the clerk would say: 'Why, didn't you hear? He died a month ago.' And then you'd say: Well, I'll be darned! That's too bad. Say, when 'll dinner be ready?'"

ARMSTRONG HAS HIS SAY.

Editor Daytona Daily News:—My attention has been called to the article in your issue of last Friday referring to the Daytona Bridge Company. That the public may know the truth I beg to state that the only reason for postponing the annual meeting of the Bridge Company was to await the arrival of B. L. Armstrong, who is secretary and treasurer of the company, who is reported to arrive in Daytona early in March, if not before. All the parties in interest understood this perfectly.

It strikes me that H. Y. Stillman places himself in a very ludicrous position, to say the least, if he is authority for the statement that I was present at the meeting this article of Friday referred to. It is a well known fact that I am president of this company, and, if I had been present at this meeting it seems to me that my place was in the chair, and Mr. Stillman's occupation of this position, and the action taken, would have been unparliamentary to the extreme.

Mr. Stillman and his friend, it seems, had gotten together, without my knowledge, and decided on what they wanted to do, and came to my house and at length succeeded in getting me to call a "snap" meeting. I refused to have anything to do with any meeting until we could get a full quorum, and all interested participating. It was important that B. L. Armstrong be present, and all concerned so understood.

Upon his arrival at my house Mr. Stillman informed me that he had come for the purpose of holding a meeting and I left the house immediately upon refusing to participate, and before any action had been taken. After my departure, there was not, of course, a quorum, and nothing that was done at that time was legal. Immediately upon B. L. Armstrong's arrival I intend to call the meeting and transact all business that comes before us in the proper manner.

Mr. Stillman's action was taken by him solely for the purpose of stirring up strife and unpleasantness, in which I think, he is disappointed.

Very truly yours,
B. L. ARMSTRONG.

JOHN ROBERT PARKINSON MEETS WITH BAD ACCIDENT.

* * *

Was Playing Horse When He Was Thrown To The Ground—Dr. P. R. Bennett Called.

John Robert Parkinson, son of Mrs. J. R. Parkinson of the Hotel Islington on Ridgewood avenue, met with a painful accident while at play Sunday morning.

Together with a number of children he was playing horse, when the play became a little too realistic and he was thrown to the ground with great force dislocating a shoulder and breaking an elbow. Dr. P. R. Bennett was hastily summoned and set the injured members, but the young man had to be put under the influence of chloroform to withstand the pain. Mrs. Parkinson had not yet returned from North Dakota where she went to attend the funeral of her brother.

The "Capitola" company, the J. H. Beyer show, which was billed here for Saturday night, failed to materialize, maybe it was just as well for all concerned for "Deadwood Dick," that was here Friday night, left a bad taste in the mouth of the show going public.

TELEGRAPH IS MISSING.

* * *

The Western Union telegraph office advises that wires are down and the service crippled beyond repair today. This means that the Daily News is not able to give you the news flashes from all over the world as has been the custom since the Daily began publication. The Daily News service is such that every day all the important news happenings of the world are telegraphed this office right up to the hour for going to press and while you are way down here on one corner of the continent you can hear the very latest by keeping in close touch with the little Daily.

RIFLES ARE GAINING ON DAYTONA HIGH SCHOOL.

* * *

Elks Coming Too—Eastern Star Strong Also—Kingston School Gains.

Although there were an really startling developments in the Bush & Sulford Piano contest with the last count, still, every indication is of a tightening up of the race, especially in Daytona.

The Rifles made a gain of 50,000 on the Daytona High School, the Eastern Star had a large vote, and the Elks gained about 5,000 on Miss Mamie Morgan, their nearest competitor. The Colored Industrial School passed the Baptist parsonage.

Outside of Daytona the Kingston school gained over 12,000 on Williams' Opera House and Miss Sallie Bullard passed Miss Ruby Spaulding. No other changes occured outside of Daytona.

With a new count every day, or almost every day, people will be better able to follow the contest, and be sure the gains and losses of the various candidates

ARMSTRONG HAS HIS SAY.

Editor Daytona Daily News:—My attention has been called to the article in your issue of last Friday referring to the Daytona Bridge Company. That the public may know the truth I beg to state that the only reason for postponing the annual meeting of the Bridge Company was to await the arrival of B. L. Armstrong, who is secretary and treasurer of the company, who is expected to arrive in Daytona early in March, if not before. All the parties in interest understood this perfectly.

It strikes me that H. Y. Stillman places himself in a very ludicrous position, to say the least, if he is authority for the statement that I was present at the meeting this article of Friday referred to. It is a well known fact that I am president of this company, and, if I had been present at this meeting it seems to me that my place was in the chair, and Mr. Stillman's usurpation of this position, and the action taken, would have been unparliamentary in the extreme

Mr. Stillman and his friend, it seems, had gotten together, without my knowledge, and decided on what they wanted to do, and came to my house and attempted to hold a "snap" meeting. I refused to have anything to do with any meeting until we could get a full quorum, and all interested participating. It was important that B L. Armstrong be present, and all concerned so understood.

Upon his arrival at my house Mr. Stillman informed me that he had con e for the purpose of holding a meeting. and I left the house immediately upon refusing to participate, and before any action had been taken. After my departure, there was not, of course, a quorum, and nothing that was done at that time was legal. Immediately upon B L. Armstrong's arrival I intend to call the meeting and transact all business that comes before us in the proper manner.

Mr. Stillman's action was taken by him solely for the purpose of stirring up strife and unpleasantness, in which. I think, he is disappointed.

Very truly yours,
B. A. ARMSTRONG.

JOHN ROBERT PARKINSON MEETS WITH BAD ACCIDENT.

Was Playing Horse When He Was Thrown To The Ground—Dr. P. R. Bennett Called.

John Robert Parkinson, son of Mrs. J. B. Parkinson of the Hotel Islington on Ridgewood avenue, met with a painful accident while at play Sunday morning.

Together with a number of children he was playing horse, when the play became a little too realistic and he was thrown to the ground with great force dislocating a shoulder and breaking an elbow. Dr P R. Bennett was hastily summoned and set the injured members, but the young man had to be put under the influence of chloroform to withstand the pain. Mrs. Parkinson had not yet returned from North Dakota where she went to attend the funeral of her brother.

The "Capitola" company, the J. H. Boyer show, which was billed here for Saturday night, failed to materialize, maybe it was just as well for all concerned for "Deadwood Dick," that was here Friday night, left a bad taste in the mouth of the show going public.

TELEGRAPH IS MISSING.

The Western Union telegraph office advises that wires are down and the service crippled beyond repair today. This means that the Daily News is not able to give you the news flashes from all over the world as has been its custom since the Daily began publication The The Daily News service is such that every day all the important news happenings of the world are telegraphed this office right up to the hour for going to press and while you are way down here on one corner of the continent you can hear the very latest by keeping in close touch with the little Daily.

RIFLES ARE GAINING ON DAYTONA HIGH SCHOOL.

Elks Coming Too—Eastern Star Strong Also—Kingston School Gains.

Although there were no really startling developments in the Bush & Safford Piano contest with the last count, still, every indication is of a tightening up of the race, especially in Daytona.

The Rifles made a gain of 30,000 on the Daytona High School, the Eastern Star had a large vote, and the Elks gained about 5 000 on Miss Maggie Morgan, their nearest competitor. The Colored Industrial School passed the Baptist parsonage

Outside of Daytona the Kingston school gained over 12,000 on Wilmans' Opera House and Miss Sallie Holland passed Miss Ruby Spaulding. No other changes occured outside of Daytona.

With a new count every day, or almost every day, people will be better able to follow the contest, and to note the gains and losses of the various candidates.
